

WHAT CAN $100 BUY THESE DAYS?

How about a toolbox full of business support, marketing help and networking?

Join The Builders. It's good for business because, like you, members of The Builders are experienced, skilled and productive. And good companies become better when they band together.

We support the local construction industry with training and resources so that union contractors and industry suppliers are better equipped to bid on work, remain productive, and enjoy profitable results.

Our services keep members on the cutting edge of their industry:

- Apprenticeship and training
- Building trades liaison
- Contract negotiations
- Crime prevention program
- Engineering duplicating services
- EEO, MBE, WBE guidance
- Intra-industry relations
- Labor contracts best practices archive
- Legislative activities
- Plan room
- Pre-job assistance
- Resource library
- Wage rates information
- Workers comp group rating program

Our membership includes representatives from the financial, insurance, and other affiliated service provider industries.

Enjoy the Publicity: Access our professional marketer to help with publicity, company profiles, your own company web site, advertising, special events, and more.

Network Network Network: Meet future customers via monthly programs, standing committees, newsletters and email blasts, annual meetings.

Become a member of The Builders. For $100, it's a good business investment. It's how you can remain competitive. It's your next logical step in remaining productive in this region's market.

Make the call today:
330-539-6050 or 1-800-686-4697
Or visit www.thebuildersonline.com

Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn

